

Privacy Policy

Energy Offers (we, us or our) is a business agency providing a range of Electricity & Gas compare and save services.

This policy explains how Energy Offers handles personal information and complies with the requirements of the Australian Privacy Act 1988(th)("Privacy Act").

This policy relates to Energy Offers' collection and handling of personal information that is covered by the Privacy Act. It is not intended to cover categories of personal information that are not covered by the Privacy Act.

By accessing our website at energyoffers.com.au, including all related pages ("Site"), you are accepting the practices outlined in this Policy.

What Personal Information Is Collected?

Energy Offers collects personal information from current customers, consumers and to an extent, anonymous visitors to our Site. Our primary goal in collecting information is to provide you with a friendly, customized, and efficient experience.

Energy Offers collects identifying information when you download content and when you visit the Site (including, without limitation, any energyoffers.com.au web pages or landing pages). The main types of personal information we collect relate to the contact and business details of our clients and other business contacts. Typically, this information includes names, addresses, telephone numbers, e- mail addresses, and job titles.

When you initially express interest obtaining additional information about us, we may also ask for additional types of personal information, such as title, department name, fax number, or additional company information, such as annual revenues or marketing spend. We may also request demographic information and unique identifiers in order to provide you with a more personalized experience.

Cookies and Automatic Information

Energy Offers receives and stores certain types of information whenever you interact with us via our website using cookies. We automatically receive and record certain "traffic data" on our server logs including your IP address, Market cookie information, the page you requested, and your communications and interactions with other site registrants. We use this traffic data to help diagnose problems with the server and analyse trends.

We automatically collect usage information, such as the numbers and frequency of visitors to our Site. We may use this information to provide research, advice and information, including, without limitation, for benchmarking purposes.

Many companies offer programs that help you to visit web sites anonymously. While Energy Offers will not be able to provide you with a personalized experience if we cannot recognize you, we want you to be aware that these programs are available.

E-mail Communications

We may receive a confirmation when you open an e-mail from Energy Offers if your computer supports this type of program, in order to help us make e-mails more interesting and helpful. We may also send out emails with information regarding Energy Offers. Customers can opt out from being contacted by us by sending an email to offers@energyoffers.com.au.

What Will The Information Be Used For?

- To provide our services.
- To respond to an individual's request.
- To maintain contact with clients and prospect customers.
- To keep clients and other contacts informed of the services we offer and industry developments that may be of interest to them, and to notify them of service offerings, seminars and other events we are holding.
- To invite individuals to partake in surveys or research studies.
- For general management and reporting purposes, such as invoicing and account management.
- All other purposes related to our business.

If we collect or use personal information in ways other than as stated in this policy, we will ensure we do so pursuant to the requirements of the Privacy Act.

Disclosure of Personal Information

Energy Offers will not disclose personal information to other external entities unless:

- Required by law.
- We believe it necessary to provide you with a product or service which you have requested.
- You give your consent.

We may also share non-personal, de-identified, and aggregated information for research or promotional purposes. Except as set out in this policy, we do not sell or trade personal information to third parties, or allow such third parties to use that personal information.

Security

We take all reasonable steps (including the employment of appropriate security systems and procedures) to ensure all data held by us is safe and secure. Such security measures include physical protection and electronic encryption to prevent any unauthorized access.

Quality

We take all reasonable steps to ensure that any personal information that we collect and use is accurate, complete, and up-to-date.

Access and correction

You have a right to access your personal information, subject to some exceptions allowed by law. If you wish to access your personal information, you should contact us at offers@energyoffers.com.au. We reserve the right to charge a fee to search for and provide access to your information.

Retention and Destruction

We will retain information collected indefinitely. Upon your request and where we determine, acting reasonably, that personal information held in respect of an individual is no longer needed for our functions or the services we provide, we will permanently destroy or de-identify that information.

Is personal information disclosed outside Australia?

Energy Offers discloses some personal information to persons or organisations that are outside Australia. Energy Offers's services are based in India. Personal information about prospective, current, and past customers is accessed by our overseas-based agents/officers for the purpose of sales and marketing, customer service, correspondence, and technical support activities.

Amendments to the policy

We may from time to time review and amend this Privacy Policy. Please check our website regularly for an up-to-date version of our Privacy Policy.
